P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, education is the foundation and bulwark of democracy, and democracy is our way of life; and

WHEREAS, the greatest results of education in South Dakota can be achieved only if the welfare and advancement of our teachers is given every consideration; and

WHEREAS, we can improve and strengthen the influence of our teachers for the general good by giving some public recognition and appreciation to the important contributions made by South Dakota teachers;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 4th to March 10th as

and urge that all our people consider the position and needs of our teachers as individuals and as public servants doing an important work for the benefit of all. I suggest that our citizens give encouragement to our teachers by visiting their classes and schools and cooperating with them for the production of the best grade of citizenship of our country. And further, I recommend that student bodies and organizations, including the young citizens league, participate in some kind of appropriate school program or exercise during Teacher Appreciation Week.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 1st day of February, 1951.
